

Len & Sue Shebosky

Not many places can beat the Gulf Coast of Florida during the winter months for sunny days & warmer weather. Having the opportunity to see the beauty of nature up close & personal every day is a special treat whether it be fishing, golfing, birding or just taking a nice walk with a camera. We have Steve & the EWM team to thank for making this a reality for us each winter for the past decade.

